Information and Instruction: If you are an alien who was in this country illegally since before January 1, 1982, you may have been granted lawful temporary resident status by the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service pursuant to the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986 (Pub. L99-603). For five years from the date you are granted such status, you are not eligible for financial assistance from the Small Business Administration (SBA) in the form of a loan or guaranty under section 7 (a) of the Small Business Act unless you are disabled or a Cuban or Haitian entrant. If you sign certification below, you are stating that the Immigration Reform and Control act of 1986 does not apply to you, or if it does apply, more than five years have elapsed since you have been granted lawful temporary resident status pursuant to such 1986 legislation.

Certification: In connection with this application for financial assistance from the SBA under section 7 (a) of the Small Business Act, I/we hereby certify that I/we are not ineligible for such assistance because of the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986.
